UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

V.

Eric Lamont Davis

Defendant

ORDER OF DETENTION PENDING TRIAL

Case Number:

05-78M-MPT

In accordance with the Bail Reform Act, 18 U.S.C. § 3142(f), a detention hearing has been held. I conclude that the following facts require the detention of the defendant pending trial in this case.

Part I—Findings of Fact

- ☐ (1) The defendant is charged with an offense described in 18 U.S.C. § 3142(f)(1) and has been convicted of a ☐ federal offense ☐ state or local offense that would have been a federal offense if a circumstance giving rise to federal jurisdiction had existed that is
- ☐ a crime of violence as defined in 18 U.S.C. § 3156(a)(4).
- ☐ an offense for which the maximum sentence is life imprisonment or death.
- ☐ an offense for which a maximum term of imprisonment of ten years or more is prescribed in _____.
- ☐ a felony that was committed after the defendant had been convicted of two or more prior federal offenses described in 18 U.S.C. § 3142(f)(1)(A)-(C), or comparable state or local offenses.
- ☐ (2) The offense described in finding (1) was committed while the defendant was on release pending trial for a federal, state or local offense.
- ☐ (3) A period of not more than five years has elapsed since the ☐ date of conviction ☐ release of the defendant from imprisonment for the offense described in finding (1).
- ☐ (4) Findings Nos. (1), (2) and (3) establish a rebuttable presumption that no condition or combination of conditions will reasonably assure the safety of (an) other person(s) and the community. I further find that the defendant has not rebutted this presumption.

Alternative Findings (A)

- X (1) There is probable cause to believe that the defendant has committed an offense
- X for which a maximum term of imprisonment of ten years or more is prescribed in 21 USC sec. 841
- ☐ under 18 U.S.C. § 924(c).
- X (2) The defendant has not rebutted the presumption established by finding 1 that no condition or combination of conditions will reasonably assure the appearance of the defendant as required and the safety of the community.

Alternative Findings (B)

- (1) There is a serious risk that the defendant will not appear.
- (2) There is a serious risk that the defendant will endanger the safety of another person or the community.

Part II—Written Statement of Reasons for Detention

I find that the credible testimony and information submitted at the hearing establishes by X clear and convincing evidence X a preponderance of the evidence. Defendant was arrested by DRBA police on April 20, 2005. He and a co-defendant (Pettaway) were charged with the same offenses. Davis signed a waiver of Miranda rights and essentially admitted to the offense. Heroin was found in the vehicle owned & operated by Davis. Case law supports that a police officer has probable cause to arrest where drugs are present. Although Davis was the admitted driver and chose to remain ignorant of the purpose of the trip, he clearly was aware that he and his vehicle was being used for distribution of some illegal substance in this case heroin. The affidavits sworn to by the testifying agent in support of the complaint and re-affirmed during the preliminary and detention hearing strongly supports the charges and was not rebutted via cross examination or other evidence by the defense. Defendant admitted to being a daily user of marijuana. Although he is working in his own business and earns a decent living, he is also in business with his co-defendant in an entertainment company. He has a prior conviction for possession with intent to distribute cocaine in Newport News, VA and lives in that state. There was no other reasonable explanation as to why he was in DE at the time of his arrest except to assist his friend and partner in transporting heroin to another jurisdiction. He has family stability in VA and owns property in that jurisdiction. Based on the above, defendant is a risk to the community.
